Cory Gardner

US Senator from Colorado 2015-2021

Today's Top Issues Serving in the Colorado House of Representatives and the United States Senate, Cory Gardner is widely recognized for his expertise in renewable and traditional energy, technology and cybersecurity, government reform and accountability, and protecting our nation's resources. He is well-versed on today's most pressing topics and greatest challenges and can deliver either a wide-ranging conversation on the issues facing our communities today – including foreign policy, security and defense, the importance of alliances, environmental policy, elections, government, free speech, constitutionalism, politics, state of the Senate, and American Ideals – or dive deep into a specific topic.

China and the Indo-Pacific From ARIA and a new China policy to maintaining maximum pressure toward North Korea and strengthening U.S. ties with Taiwan, Cory Gardner is an expert on foreign relations. He covers topics such as avoiding neutralization without denuclearization, and Phase Zero: a potential new Taiwan policy.