

Robert Genetski

Economist, Forecaster Investment Advisor

Dr. Robert Genetski has a rare combination of business and academic experience. He is a world-renowned economist, consultant, teacher, author and popular speaker. For the past 25 years, as the head of his own consulting firm, he has provided his clients with valuable insights to the financial implications of various policy developments.

Genetski has taught economics at various institutions including New York University, and the University of Chicago's Graduate School of Business.

As one of the nation's leading advocates of free market classical principles, he has written five books on the subject. His latest book, Rich Nation, Poor Nation, provides extensive historical evidence showing how poor nations have become rich, and how rich nations can lose their wealth. It has received rave reviews with the President of the Heartland Institute calling it "...an instant classic and belongs in every library and on the desk of everyone with an interest in human prosperity."

Two of Genetski's previous books, Winning with Money, and Classical Principles & the Wealth of Nations, have been translated into Japanese and Chinese. Genetski has been recognized as one of the top five speakers in the field of economics and finance. He entertains tens of thousands of people each year, using humor and anecdotes to make complex economic issues understandable to all.
