

Donna Brazile & Haley Barbour

Entertaining Political Powerhouse Duo

Political strategist Donna Brazile is an adjunct professor, best-selling author, syndicated columnist, television commentator, and vice chair of voter registration and participation at the Democratic National Committee. She was also the first African-American woman to manage a presidential campaign. Oprah's O magazine chose her as one of its "20 remarkable visionaries" and Washingtonian named her one of its "100 most powerful women." Brazile is known for her ability to analyze the political climate and attract supporters and addresses this and the political mood of the country.

Haley Barbour is the former governor of Mississippi and the former chairman of the Republican Governor's Association. He also served as chairman of the Republican National Committee, leading the GOP to gain control of Congress for the first time in 40 years. POLITICO calls him "the most powerful Republican in politics." He was also widely praised for his handling of both the Gulf Oil Spill and Hurricane Katrina. One of the Republican Party's top political strategists, Barbour addresses elections, politics, Republican strategy, the economy, and other hot political topics.
