

Max Major

World-Renowned Mentalist

Max Major is a world-renowned mentalist living in Las Vegas, NV. His keynotes, showcasing real life Jedi mind tricks, are featured at corporate events around the world. In addition to his studies in influence, Major relies heavily on his skills at reading body language, which he has honed over the course of 2500 live shows. His clients include the world's largest corporations, Facebook, Microsoft, CSX, Costco, Google as well as command performances for the world's elite (Chief Justice John Roberts, Redskins Owner Dan Snyder, Eccentric Billionaire Richard Branson, and more).

In 2020, Max Major was invited to compete on the 15th season of America's Got Talent. In addition to being the breakout star of the season, he became the first contestant in the history of AGT to make it from an online audition all the way to the finals. After witnessing Max Major's mind reading first hand Simon Cowell called it "One of the most astonishing things I've seen in my entire life."

In the last 5 years he has been called before two Department of Defense Intelligence Agencies to demonstrate his innovative techniques in hypnosis, body language and influence.
