

Lisa Gable

Award-winning CEO, Presidential Appointee, Former US Ambassador & UN Delegate, Advisor to Fortune 500 CEOs

Lisa Gable is a Wall Street Journal and USA Today bestselling author of the award-winning book, Turnaround: How to Change Course When Things are Going South and is recognized worldwide as a turnaround mastermind. As CEO of several organizations, and as a former Presidential appointee, US Ambassador, UN Delegate, and advisor to Fortune 500 companies, Lisa has orchestrated and executed the successful turnarounds of well-known private and public organizations in all industries and sectors. Lisa most recently served as the CEO of FARE, the world's largest funder of food allergy research.

In 2004, she was appointed by President George W. Bush as the first woman in World's Fair's 150-year history to direct the U.S. Pavilion, a 100 percent non-federally funded $33.7 million operation with more than 70 employees. She held personal rank of Ambassador.

Her professional background includes tenure as a Distinguished Fellow, SMU Hunt Institute for Engineering and Humanity, Lyle School of Engineering; an Advisory Council Member of the Krach Institute for Tech Diplomacy at Purdue; an Opinion Columnist and External Advisory Board Member, CEOWORLD magazine; Mentor, Rare as One project, a Chan Zuckerberg Initiative; Advisory Board, the Diplomatic Courier; a member, Women's Democracy Network, International Republican Institute; Chair, Foundation for a Smoke Free World; Senior Vice President of Global Public Policy, PepsiCo; founding President, the Healthy Weight Commitment Foundation; a Member, National Academy of Medicine IOM Roundtable on Obesity Solutions; a Board Member, Girl Scouts of the USA; a Member, the Virginia Governor's Economic Development and Jobs Creation Commission; an Advisory Board Member, Base Technologies; a Trustee of Thunderbird School of Global Management; a Board Member, Lovelace Respiratory Research Institute; a Board Member, Virginia Foundation for the Humanities; a Commissioner of the President's Commission on White House Fellowships; a U.S. Delegate to the United Nations; Vice Chairman for the U.S. Defense Department's Defense Advisory Committee on Women in the Services; a Trustee for the California State Summer School of the Arts; a Partner, the Brand Group; Global Brand Identity Manager for INTEL Corporation; Deputy Associate Director, Office of Presidential Personnel, the White House; Special Assistant for Technology Transfer Policy, Office of the Secretary of Defense.

Lisa Gable holds a Bachelor's degree in International Relations from University of Virginia and a Master's degree from Georgetown University's National Security Studies program.