

Chris LaCivita

Co-Campaign Manager for Donald Trump's 2024 Campaign, Chief of Staff for Republican National Committee

Chris LaCivita served as the senior advisor and co-campaign manager to Donald Trump's 2024 presidential campaign, playing a key role in shaping strategy for one of the world's most closely watched races. A seasoned political strategist known for both crafting and executing successful campaigns, he has built a distinguished career spanning over three decades in Republican Party politics. His ability to analyze the state of the country, interpret polling data, and predict political shifts—combined with his insights into Trump's plans for the coming years—make him a valuable resource for understanding and navigating new political territory.

Exclusively represented by Leading Authorities speakers bureau, LaCivita's extensive experience offers audiences valuable insights into campaign strategies, insider tactics, and the broader political landscape. His deep understanding of the Republican Party's evolution provides historical context for analyzing recent campaigns and setting expectations for future political developments.

Notably, LaCivita played a pivotal role in reorganizing the Republican National Committee as Chief of Staff, running a successful 2024 RNC Convention. As a speaker, LaCivita informs audiences about the intricacies of political campaigning, the role of media in elections, and the strategic and tactical considerations that shape electoral outcomes, while offering a forward-looking perspective on the nation's political direction. Currently, LaCivita provides strategic counsel and manages relationships with the Trump administration.

Throughout his career, LaCivita has been integral to several high-profile political campaigns. He served as a senior advisor to Senator Rand Paul's 2016 presidential campaign and Senator Ron Johnson's 2022 re-election campaign. Before entering politics, LaCivita served in the United States Marine Corps, where he rose to the rank of Sergeant, saw combat during the first Gulf War, and received a Purple Heart.