

Barry Asmus

Senior Economist with the National Center for Policy Analysis

One of the nation's most requested speakers, Dr. Barry Asmus addresses the challenges facing America. His programs focus on global opportunities, success in the new information age, business strategies, and government policies that can create a favorable climate for business and capital. Asmus presents his commentary in an entertaining, easily-understood style. Twice he has been voted the Outstanding Professor of the Year, in addition to receiving the Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge Award for Private Enterprise Education. An accomplished author, Asmus has written The Best Is Yet To Come; When Riding a Dead Horse, For Heaven's Sake . . . Dismount; and Apollo.

- Managing the Future
- Business Strategies
- Global Opportunities
- Government Policy