

Jim Morris (The Rookie)

Inspiration for the Film The Rookie

Dream Makers. Speaking about chasing dreams, and being your best by surrounding yourself with the best mentors, Jim shares his memoirs and the dream makers who helped shaped his life. He incorporates client's requests seamlessly while entertaining the audience with self-deprecating humor. Jim shares his failures and successes in life while taking the audience on an emotional ride. Audiences of all ages will leave talking about Jim Morris and his inspirational message.

Finding a Mentor and Becoming a Leader. Focusing on being the mentor for someone that you would want for yourself, Jim encourages the audience to surround themselves with the best people to bring out the best, and to in turn give themselves and others the best chance for success. Jim tells his own story of defeat while believing the wrong kind of people and shares about his successes while surrounded by key people who helped him believe in himself and pushed him to be the man he is today. Humorous and moving, you won't be disappointed.

Remember Who You Are. This topic teaches audiences about the importance of integrity. Remembering who you are in all circumstances, when people are watching and when they are not. Jim tells personal stories about keeping promises, always doing what you say or promise, and what you do when no one is watching at all...makes you who you are.
