

Tom Davis

Former Congressman from Virginia

Politics Today. With his extensive political experience and widely-respected expertise, Tom Davis discusses the current political landscape and the hot-button topics, covering issues like tax reform, immigration, budgets, sequestration, and more. He offers audiences a legislative perspective and can outline the life cycles of bills introduced and highlight their potential impact.

Political Strategy Session. A political junkie who chaired his party's campaign committee, Tom Davis is passionate about election strategy. In this comprehensive session, he explores the dynamics of the major races across the country.

Point/Counterpoint with Congressman Martin Frost. Tom Davis and Martin Frost (D-TX) are one of the most popular political duos. Both have a history of running political committees and getting things done in the House. Together they tackle the politics du jour, highlighting key issues like tax reform, immigration, budgets, sequestration, and more. Both highly intelligence, their banter enlivens the debate and keeps audiences riveted.