50Million Faces: Motivation in the Face of MS. Ann Romney's inspirational story is one of achievement, dedication, and strength. Drawing from her highly anticipated memoir, detailing – for the first time – her battle with multiple sclerosis, she talks about empowerment and hope as she shares the wisdom of others who have touched her life and inspired her to make what has been an astounding recovery. By sharing her story, Ann wants to give hope to the 50 million people worldwide who suffer from neurologic diseases, as she has been given hope on this journey. Her talk is a mixture of motivational insights about the transformation that happens when life throws you a curveball, innovation and healthcare in the United States, and behind-the-scenes political stories from her time with Mitt on the campaign trail.
