

Leslie Ireland

Former Dept. of Treasury Assistant Secretary for Intelligence and Analysis

Have You Optimized Your Organization for Today's Cyber Threat? Cyber attacks present an enterprise-wide threat, yet many companies still treat it solely as an IT issue. Drawing on her experience as a two-time mission manager who oversaw intelligence on Iran and Threat Finance for the US government, Ms. Ireland lays out why a coordinated approach is critical in the face of today's cyber adversaries. She covers the ever-changing cyber threat landscape of today and also addresses how to communicate cyber risk effectively to a company's Board of Directors.
