

Ben Domenech

Publisher, The Federalist

Political Outlook. Ben Domenech is a leading conservative voice across all digital platforms, covering election cycles, policy, culture, and religion for numerous online, radio, and television outlets. The youngest political appointee of the George W. Bush administration and a former speechwriter, Ben is a political insider who's uniquely positioned to comment on the current political outlook. Part policy wonk and part riveting commentator and host, Ben's speeches offer political insight wrapped in anecdotes from time spent working in the White House, founding the popular RedState blog, reporting for prominent Think Tanks, and forecasting the future of the American political system.
