

Diana Gomes Da Silva

Motivational speaker and female pilot

Motivation. Igniting dreams - my life and the pursue of my passion. Where she tells us the story how did a petite Portuguese girl conquered hearts and an outstanding career worldwide pursuing her dreams.

A day at work. Where she reveals a game changing philosophy of addressing training - let's train skills and competencies and the success cases instead of the last seen accident- positive reinforcement of successful histories.

In this presentation Diana guides us through a real emergency she had with both engines partially failed, similar to "The Miracle on the Hudson," and addresses the following topics:

- Managing Unexpected Events and Stress
- Human Factors with Computer Interfaces
- Decision Making and Communication: Challenges of Operating in Multicultural Environments
- Unusual Team Compositions
- Training for Multiple Unrelated Problems
- Empowering Women
- Teamwork in Multicultural Environments
