

Henry Wong

Global Entrepreneur

Innovation Secrets to Staying ahead of Your Competition: Lessons from Silicon Valley Venture Capitalist and Serial Entrepreneur. Most companies get themselves stuck in a competitive market, trying all kind of ways to innovate. It takes a lot of effort and it will demoralize your executives. In this speech you will learn the 3 keys in building an innovation culture, keeping innovation ideas flowing out from every employee of your company and leaving your competitors way behind eating dust. Hear it from the venture investor who funded and succeeded in his 5 companies in Silicon Valley.

Building a Successful Team: Inspiring Lessons from Silicon Valley Venture Capitalist. The success of your company is dependent on the right DNA and the synergy of your team. The DNA of a successful team is formed right from the start and grows stronger throughout the company's growth. Hear and learn from the venture capitalist and serial entrepreneur, who successfully funded and built first-hand 5 companies in Silicon Valley. In this speech, you'll learn the key strategies on how to form the right team and grow the synergy of the teams.

Execution Power: CXO Lessons from Silicon Valley Venture Capitalist and Serial Entrepreneur. Ideas are worthless if you don't execute them. Making things happen is the major differentiator that separates a great leader from a manager. How to make things happen fast yet successfully? Hear it from Silicon Valley Venture Capitalist and Serial Entrepreneur who set up 5 successful companies in 10 years and learn the execution power and auto pilot system that'll help you make things happen fast and successfully in a fast growth business.