Alain Nu

The Man Who Knows, Star of TLC's The Mysterious World of Alain Nu

Invisible Connections. In this one-man show, Alain Nu utilizes his untold powers to foretell our actions, reveal our unspoken thoughts, and create seemingly impossible phenomena. This unprecedented man of mystery has entertained audiences worldwide with his uncanny demonstrations that blur the line between science and he mysteries of unexplained phenomena. Nothing is impossible in Alain's world; he says, "With just our thoughts and words as tools of visualization, we have the beginnings of untold power." How does he do it? In a town known for secrecy, Alain Nu is reluctant to reveal his especially sensitive powers. He acknowledges that his uncanny effects incorporate elements of probability, psychology, suggestion, professional techniques, and good timing. First, and most importantly, he considers himself an entertainer. So, what is it exactly that Alain Nu knows? "I know that each of us has a super hidden potential that is real," he says. But, is it possible for us to develop these super powers? "I think that answer lies in our power to dream," says Alain Nu.
