

David Lammy

British Foreign Secretary and Member of Parliament for Tottenham

Leadership in a Changing World David Lammy explores the challenges facing modern leaders in an increasingly complex global landscape, sharing insights on leadership, decision-making, and navigating political and economic uncertainty.

The Future of Democracy and Social Justice David examines the growing pressures on democratic institutions, the importance of social justice, and how governments, businesses, and communities can work together to create more equitable societies.

Global Affairs and Geopolitical Change Drawing on his experience in international politics, David provides expert analysis on global power shifts, economic development, international relations, and the forces shaping the future world order.

Diversity, Representation, and Opportunity David shares powerful perspectives on inequality, representation, and creating opportunities for underrepresented communities, highlighting the importance of inclusive leadership in shaping stronger organisations and societies.