

Denise Hamilton

Nationally Recognized Diversity & Inclusion Leader; CEO & Founder, WatchHerWork

How to Be An Ally Now, more than ever, we are all confronting the complex issues of race in the workplace. What does it mean to be an ally? How do we have the difficult conversations in a way that is productive and supportive? Denise Hamilton can help. She challenges and encourages participants to excavate the underlying beliefs that shape their strongly-held opinions around race and intersectionality. Together we will identify shared values and develop a framework for incorporating different perspectives. The goal is to harness the differences among us to generate creative and innovative solutions to move us to optimal performance. The world is changing. By aligning your teams, especially leadership, we can create a path to competitive excellence, improved morale and increased retention.

Master Yourself, Master Your World In this powerful workshop, Denise shares 10 ways to change your life and career by changing the ONLY thing that's actually in your control – YOU!
