

Joseph Kennedy III

U.S. Congressman of Massachusetts (2013-2021), U.S. Special Envoy to Northern Ireland (2022-2024)

Today's Top Issues As the U.S. Representative for Massachusetts's diverse 4th congressional district, Joseph Kennedy III dedicated his legislative agenda to social and economic justice, fighting to tackle the systemic inequities for the people most at risk and in need. He is well-versed on today's most pressing topics and greatest challenges, and can deliver either a wide-ranging conversation on the issues facing our communities today – including civil rights, climate, health care, mental health, immigration, education, and economic reform – or dive deep into a specific topic. With his signature relatable and fast-paced delivery, and his uniquely empathetic approach to our most difficult debates, Kennedy thoughtfully tackles the issues most important to your audience.

An Inside Look: The Current Political Landscape With a unique talent for building diverse coalitions and a political will to get things done, Congressman Joseph Kennedy III was able to build an impressive legislative record in a polarized Washington over his four terms in the House of Representatives. He shares an insider's perspective on the dynamics of politics today, and his vision for a political landscape that is more inclusive, representative, and fair. Weaving in insider insights with legislative know-how, Kennedy takes audiences behind the curtain to see how things get done on The Hill – providing his take on the current environment and exploring what's next for the country's politics.