Karen Blackett

Business Leader, Culture Expert and Former UK President of WPP

Building High-Performing Cultures Drawing on her leadership experience at WPP and GroupM, Karen explores how strong workplace cultures can drive performance, innovation and long-term success.

Inclusive Leadership Karen reflects on navigating pressure, setbacks and rapid change, and how resilient leadership can inspire confidence and stability within organisations.

Women in Business and Leadership Karen shares her journey to becoming one of the UK's most influential business leaders and the importance of representation, confidence and opportunity.

The Future of Business and Creativity A forward-looking perspective on leadership, creativity, innovation and the evolving role of businesses in a rapidly changing world.