

Michelle MiJung Kim

Award Winning Author of The Wake Up & CEO of Awaken.

Closing the Gap in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion A powerful voice in the effort to advance diversity, equity, and inclusion in business and society, Michelle MiJung Kim has provided leading organizations and top executives with actionable frameworks for creating meaningful change for underrepresented groups. In this talk, she shares valuable insights on the role DEI plays in powering organizations that create sustainable change, and challenges audience members to recognize their biases and become active participants in creating more inclusive cultures. Her insights on fostering more equitable environments for diverse groups — regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, or disability — can be adapted and implemented by any organization. Additional takeaways from Michelle MiJung Kim's talks include: Beyond Performative Allyship Identities, Power, Privilege Anti-Racism and Dismantling White Supremacy Asian American Activism LGBTQ+ Intersectionality Mental Health, Trauma, and Healing Writing Your First Book Youth Empowerment Courageous Leadership Entrepreneurship