

Scott Pelley

Legendary 60 Minutes Correspondent (2004 - 2026) & CBS News Anchor

Current Events Through The Eyes Of A News Anchor. Scott Pelley, award-winning investigative reporter, correspondent, and news anchor, takes audiences on a multi-media trip around the world through his unique insights and behind-the-scenes looks at the people and issues that shape our lives. From Iran to North Korea to US soil, Pelley shares his nuanced perspective of the major events of the day and explains what happens after the cameras stop rolling during his most well-known interviews. He brilliantly contextualizes the historical people he interviews, humanizing oftentimes veiled public figures. With a customized presentation for the industry of his audience, he includes a collection of inspiring and motivational stories that will capture the imagination, offer valuable life lessons, and excite audiences with possibilities for tomorrow. Using great video clips to weave together a dynamic look at the world we live in today, he effortlessly entertains, inspires, and educates. It is a commanding presentation with one of the most recognizable faces in journalism.
