Terry McAuliffe

Former Governor of Virginia and Former Chairman of the DNC

The Nation's Prospects McAuliffe addresses the policies and decisions that are shaping America in the current administration. He discusses the current state of politics in Washington, bringing his decades of experience working closely with the political figures across the entire political spectrum. His presentations are energetic, optimistic, and always full of the humor, honesty, and charisma that has made him a favorite with audiences of any political orientation.

The Life Of His Political Party Go behind the scenes of a national political campaign with Governor Terry McAuliffe, who also served as chairman of the Democratic National Committee (DNC) and the former campaign chairman for Hillary Clinton for President. A dynamo credited with reenergizing the party, he spearheaded new state of the art technology to connect grassroots activists with the party's new information infrastructure. McAuliffe shares his insights into guiding a presidential frontrunner, creating a winning team of staffers, and generating record-breaking funds. Having worked as a top aide to former President Bill Clinton, and being the former chair of the DNC, McAuliffe's efforts paved the way to a re-election, and enabled the DNC to be debt free. His presentations are bursting with humor, energy, and political prowess. McAuliffe has been in Democratic politics for more than 30 years, and his stories are full of wit and valuable lessons paired with McAuliffe's trademark frankness and charm.

Success In An Era Of Gridlock In the current political climate, citizens are desperate for leaders who can make progress by finding common ground. As Governor, McAuliffe won bipartisan support for a historic $1 billion investment in K-12 public education. As Chairman of the National Governors Association, he used that leadership position to assist other states as they worked to strengthen their cyber security infrastructure, leaving them better equipped to understand their vulnerabilities and providing tools and guidance to secure their state systems and data. Moreover, as Governor, McAuliffe conducted 35 trade missions to dozens of countries, personally delivering Virginia's calling card to business leaders around the globe. Hundreds of thousands of jobs were created and more than $20 billion in capital investment was brought to the Commonwealth, billions more than any previous governor. He has brought the unemployment rate from 5.4% to 3.6% and initial unemployment claims have fallen to a 44-year low. Governor McAuliffe has given talks all over the globe on a variety of topics, including cyber security, economic development, restoration of rights, renewable energy, trade, education reform, transportation, and workforce development.