June Sarpong MBE

Renowned British Broadcaster and MBE Recipient

Diversity, Representation and Cultural Change June explores the importance of representation in media, business and society, and how organisations can create more inclusive and forward-thinking cultures.

Women in Leadership Drawing on her career in broadcasting and public life, June shares insights into confidence, visibility and navigating leadership as a woman in the public eye.

The Power of Communication An engaging look at how effective communication can build trust, influence audiences and create meaningful connections in business and beyond.

Media, Influence and Modern Society June reflects on the changing media landscape, the impact of social platforms and the role media plays in shaping public opinion and culture.

Hosting, Moderating and In Conversation Events With warmth, humour and professionalism, June expertly hosts live events, panel discussions and interviews with senior leaders, politicians and celebrities.