Larry Sabato

Election Analyst and Author; University of Virginia Professor of Politics; Founder and Head of the U.Va. Center for Politics

Larry Sabato's Crystal Ball Sabato, the master of the most accurate website on politics and the man who repeatedly takes home top honors for his election predictions, gives his up-to-the-minute update on politics and the upcoming elections for President and Congress. His presentation can be tailored to cover key state elections and other political topics, as well. A multi-media PowerPoint presentation can accompany the talk, at the option of the client. A question-and-answer session is encouraged.

A More Perfect Constitution Larry Sabato's book A More Perfect Constitution is a call for a new American Constitutional Convention, with 23 specific, major changes proposed. This makes for a great debate and discussion with any group interested in American politics and government. A multi-media PowerPoint presentation can accompany the talk, at the option of the client. A question-and-answer session is encouraged.

TV and Politics Sabato takes his audience through an entertaining and informative history of television and politics, using classic political TV ads from Eisenhower and Kennedy to Trump and Biden.

The Kennedy Half Century Based on his book The Kennedy Half Century, Larry Sabato explores the fascinating and powerful influence President Kennedy has had over five decades on media, the general public, and each of his nine presidential successors. Due to his extraordinary promise and untimely assassination, millions of Americans remain captivated by his 1000 days in office. Through interviews with major political and media figures and ordinary citizens alike, along with previously unseen archival finds, Sabato shows how JFK's presidency has strongly influenced the policies and decisions of every president since.
