

Max Major

Max is a World-Renowned Mentalist

Tricks of the Trade World-Renowned Mentalist pulls back the curtain to reveal tools of influence and non-verbal communication. In today's fast-paced and competitive business environment, success doesn't go to the smartest person in the room—it goes to the most perceptive. In this high-impact and interactive keynote, world-renowned mentalist Max Major reveals the secret techniques he's used to influence, persuade, and connect with audiences across the globe—from Fortune 500 boardrooms to primetime television. Tricks of the Trade isn't just a keynote—it's an experience. Blending jaw-dropping demonstrations of mind reading and influence with powerful, actionable strategies, this program is unlike anything your audience has ever seen. It's part show, part masterclass—highly immersive and relentlessly engaging from start to finish. Attendees won't just be entertained—they'll leave equipped with a practical toolkit for real-world impact. They'll learn how to decode body language, build instant rapport, and master the subtle art of influence in sales, leadership, and everyday communication. Your audience will discover how to: Read people like a book using nonverbal cues Influence decisions without manipulation Build trust and connection in seconds Enhance communication across departments and clients Gain a mentalist's edge in every business interaction Whether you're closing a deal, leading a team, or presenting a vision, the tools of a mentalist can elevate your impact and separate you from the competition.

Change Your Thoughts, Change Your Life The Mind Hacker: Reprogramming Your Mind for Performance, Resilience, and Growth. The biggest obstacle to success isn't external—it's internal. In this transformational keynote, Max Major takes audiences on a journey inside the most powerful tool they possess: the human mind. Using principles from neuroscience, hypnosis, and behavioral psychology, Max shares how to identify limiting beliefs, rewire mental habits, and consciously design a mindset that supports peak performance. Change Your Thoughts, Change Your Life is not your typical keynote—it's a fully immersive experience. Combining stunning feats of mentalism with science-backed strategies for personal transformation, this is part performance, part deep-dive into the psychology of success. Your audience will be riveted—and empowered. This is not about motivation—it's about transformation. Change Your Thoughts, Change Your Life equips professionals with practical tools to reset their mental operating system and unlock their full potential in business and in life. This keynote keeps participants fully engaged while delivering real-world takeaways they can apply immediately to take control of their thoughts, emotions, and results. They'll walk away with: A blueprint for mental reprogramming and habit change Strategies to overcome fear, stress, and self-doubt Techniques to visualize success and make it real Tools to access flow states and consistent high performance A new understanding of how thoughts shape outcomes In a world of constant disruption and relentless pressure, your mind is either your greatest asset—or your biggest liability. This keynote ensures it becomes your competitive advantage.