Michael Steele

Former Chairman of the Republican National Committee & Former Lieutenant Governor of Maryland

The Political Scene According To Steele Michael Steel's experiences as Maryland's lieutenant governor, as a candidate for the US Senate, and as a Republican Party leader make him an excellent guide on the fast-paced world of politics. He is a political pundit and a respected political analyst at MSNBC.

Solutions To Move America Forward: A View From Both Sides of The Aisle When paired with a speaker with contrasting ideals; Michael Steele expertly presents a compelling point-counterpoint debate over some of the major issues that will impact the nation.

Inspired & Inspiring Leadership Michael Steele delivers a stirring presentation on his personal journey from his childhood as the son of a working mother in Washington, DC, to his difficulties in college, his years in a Catholic seminary, and his election to public office and rise in the Republican Party. He is a role model and leader whose personal story of struggle and fortitude inspires audiences of all ages.

The Black Experience & The American Dream Steele points to various personal experiences and news headlines to engage audiences in powerful discussion about the black experience in context with the American Dream. Touching on hard-hitting topics, including the effectiveness of the black community's efforts to eradicate prejudice, white America's blindness to race issues, and how one's school or workplace can vastly contribute to an individual's success, Steele delivers insightful perspective into the issues sparking conversation from college campuses to corporate America.

Other Topics How To Win Elections & Lose The Country. Our Founding Principles & 2020. The 2008 Financial Crisis & Why We Still Ignore Solutions.