Robert Genetski

Economist, Forecaster Investment Advisor

How the Global Economy Will Impact Your Business Dr. Genetski is a widely-recognized expert on developments throughout the world. His latest book, Rich Nation Poor Nation, has received rave reviews as "an instant classic that should be on the desk of everyone with an interest in human prosperity." His global presentation provides fascinating insights to developments in countries throughout the world and how they will impact your business.

Rich Nation Poor Nation: Why Some Nations Prosper While Others Fail Dr. Genetski explains how the most important issue in economics is why some nations are wealthy while others are poor. He explains how in spite of a massive amount of new data there has been no popular systematic analysis of the implications of this data. His book provides such an analysis. Genetski claims that those armed with the evidence he presents will be able to determine the future economic prospects for almost every nation.

How Economic & Political Developments in the United States Will Affect Your Business Drawing from his extensive research into the economic and political history, Dr. Genetski analyzes current trends from a historical perspective. His analysis shows how past cycles provide unique insights into where economic and political forces are heading and how these changes will impact your business.

The Federal Reserve's Role in the Financial Crisis & Its Implication for Stock Prices and Interest Rates Dr. Genetski is one of the nation's leading experts on monetary policy. His unique perspective on the Fed's role in the financial crisis has important implications for the future direction of stock prices and interest rates. His shocking analysis and insights on Fed' policy will appeal to anyone with an interest in financial markets.

We Can Eliminate Poverty In this passionate and captivating presentation, Dr. Genetski draws on the evidence in his book, Rich Nation Poor Nation. He provides powerful evidence on the causes of poverty and how some of the poorest nations have successfully overcome their poverty. His uplifting conclusion is we have the power to eliminate abject poverty from the face of the earth.

Unique Presentations Dr. Genetski welcomes the opportunity to provide presentations suited for particular groups, industries or companies. In each case he works closely with the client to make sure his presentations focus on the most relevant topics for each group. He is qualified to speak on technology, manufacturing, housing, financial markets, retail, trade and most other areas impacted by economics.